

ANNAS CAULDRON

HIGH PRIESTESS

PREPARATION FOR LOVE

Make these preparations on a Friday when the moon is waxing.

- Don't leave burning candles unattended!

You will need

2 pink candles

Photo of a happy couple (from a magazine perhaps)

Two small pieces of rose or clear quartz.

Rose water

Look around your house and choose a small cupboard where the door has always been closed. Now clean it from top to bottom. Sprinkle rose water inside.

This is your love cupboard, your own shrine to the love that awaits you. Treat it with respect and honour. Keep the door open always.

Arrange your items inside and add anything that you feel is appropriate. Of course, one of my Love Talisman Pouches or the crystal clusters would be perfect!

When everything is complete, light the candles and picture yourself in the future enjoying a loving relationship. Let the candles burn down

Replace the candles and clean your cupboard weekly.

Remember that it is possible to meet the love of your life anywhere at all!! It may not be at the pub or when you go out for the evening but when you are shopping or waiting for a bus.

Increase your chances of finding a partner by taking up a new hobby or joining a group.

Be prepared!
